

Social Audit Network (SAN) Gathering

...annual networking event...

Social Impact in Practice

Friday 20th April 2012
at 54 St James Street, Liverpool

Are you interested in social value? Do you want to know more about how to investigate and report about your organisation's social, environmental and economic impact? Are you a commissioner of public services who is looking for ways that providers can demonstrate the outcomes that you need?

The Social Audit Network is hosting a gathering of those who are interested in Social Impact in Practice, with a programme that will include:

- Keynote speeches from Luciana Berger MP and Caroline Mason (Chief Operating Officer at Big Society Capital)
- Speakers from across public service sectors, including housing, and health
- World café conversations encompassing the key theme of social impact in practice
- Facilitated thinking and learning workshops about aspects of social impact reporting tools, analysis, financial measures and audit
- Your chance to reflect on social value and influence aspirations for SAN
- Tributes to SAN founder members John Pearce and Mike Swain

SAN would like to acknowledge valuable sponsorship from The Women's Organisation.
